

Final Conference - Roma green agents: The informal workforce keeping Balkan cities clean and green.

Date: 21.02 - 15:00-17:30 CET

Aim: Public event on environmental justice, inclusive circular economy involving the informal sector promotion of policy recommendations. Conclusions of the different working packages in connection with the recommendations to have final conclusion presentation of project results and learnings; We should emphasize that political stakeholders have to take action:

- National level: inclusion of waste collectors
- EU level: impact of EU policies on waste collectors

Agenda:

15:00 - 15:05 Welcome message

Diego Marin, Policy Officer, European Environmental Bureau

15:05 - 15:10 Project background

Sophia Kratz, Project Manager, Umweltdachverband

15:10 - 15:20 Keynote Speech

- Harald Fugger – Attaché at the Austrian Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs and Consumer Protection
- Petrica Dulgheru, CEO, REDI

15:20 – 15:55 Interventions

- Results from REDI study on policies, Sara Sejfula, Social Mediator, REDI
- Project challenges and lessons learnt, Asib Zekir, Director Green Initiatives, REDI
- Informal Recycling Sector from an Environmental Justice perspective, Katya Dunajeva, Assistant Professor, Pazmany Peter Catholic University

15:55 – 16:05 Reactions from:

- (TBC), Macedonian Ministry
- (TBC), European Commission

16:05 - 16:35 Panel discussion

- Asib Zekir, Director Green Initiatives, REDI
- Katya Dunajeva, Assistant Professor, Pazmany Peter Catholic University
- (TBC), Macedonian Ministry
- (TBC), European Commission
- Tefik Musoski, Pastor in the Bair Bitola Evangelical Church

16:35 - 16:55 Q&A session

16:55 - 17:00 Closing remarks

Sophia Kratz, Project Manager, Umweltdachverband

17:00 - 17:30 Networking snack