

GENDER 4 ALL

BY MATEO

13 – 21 April, 2023
Agueda, Portugal

Members of the Association EPEKA, Soc. Ent., take part in a youth exchange on gender equality in Portugal. The “Gender 4 All” training aims to provide youth workers with new tools and competences on gender equality in order to strengthen their capacities to develop activities that promote gender equality.

The objectives of the project are:

- Capacity building for the development of activities promoting gender equality;
- developing skills on gender equality issues by acquiring knowledge on the realities that contribute to inequalities;
- Reflect on the nature of existing gender stereotypes;
- promote understanding of gender equality issues;
- Promote synergies and transnational cooperation, strengthening the potential of YWs and organisations to address common issues
- Identify and explore key concepts and key elements in the gender debate today;
- Develop tools for coordinated, safe and constructive work on gender equality for trainers, youth workers and young people;
