D. BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Please briefly present the partner organisation.	Epeka Berlin e.V. is a cultural organization dedicated to experimentation, education, and production across disciplines. Through a broad range of educational programs, performances, residencies, and exhibitions, Epeka Berlin e.V. intends to transcend disciplinary boundaries to foster a community where alternative modes of thought are activated and supported. We strive to make culture accessible to all, with the specific focus on young people that we'd like to include in all the activities we organize. Our main method of empowerment of communities is through various forms of art. EPEKA Berlin e.V. is a part of the larger Epeka Network, with its branches in the following countries: Slovenia, Croatia, Montenegro, UK, Turkey, Austria, Serbia, and the Czech Republic. The president of EPEKA Berlin e.V. previously worked in EPEKA Slovenia, where he gathered relevant working experience, which he can now put into practice. Although Epeka Berlin is a fairly new organization, its key persons are familiar with EU programs, like Erasmus+, Europe for Citizens, Creative Europe, etc., which they coordinated before establishing their own branch.
What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons involved in this application?	Although EPEKA Network is in several countries situated the richness we have in our human capacities. Our staff members are experienced in different fields of art, culture, active citizenship, social inclusion, minorities, ecology, youth work, volunteering, etc. Luka Murovec President of EPEKA Berlin, is a spatial practitioner, who works at the intersection of architecture and art interventions in the public sphere. His work combines cutting-edge technology and environmentalism to create inclusive and enjoyable situations in public spaces. He graduated in architecture at the Institute of Contemporary Art at the TU Graz and TU Berlin. Since 2014 he's been collaborating with the experimental architecture collective raumlaborberlin, winner of the International Golden Lion award at the Venice Architecture Biennale in 2021. Previously, he worked with the art and architecture group realities:united in Berlin and Waltritsch a+u architects in Trieste. Also was coordinator of volunteering programs in EPEKA, one of the establishers of Romani kafenava – the first Roma restaurant in the EU, that operates by the principles of social entrepreneurship. Leader and coordinator of several youth projects financed by Erasmus+. Maja Wendel Active in the field of communication and is binding the EPEKA Network and running all the platforms for communication and between the members and partners. Nermina Simončič Administration.
