

ROUND TABLE AT THE OPENING OF THE EXHIBITION "SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS FOR CHANGE"

BY AS

10 June 2024, at noon
University Library Maribor

A representative of the Association EPEKA, Soc. Ent., will take part in a panel discussion on "Sustainable Development Goals for Change". At SLOGA, a platform of non-governmental organizations for development, global learning and humanitarian aid, as part of the Sustainable.Local.Global II project, they prepared a traveling exhibition "With the goal of sustainable development to change", with which they want to raise awareness among young people, the wider and professional public about Slovenian international development cooperation and humanitarian aid.

The opening of the exhibition will be accompanied by a panel discussion on the Sustainable Development Goals.

Interlocutors:

- Štefan Simončič, president of the EPEKA association, which is a member of the SLOGA platform, and also presents himself at the exhibition with the project Promoting Roma Equality in Slovenia
- Mag. Bernard Memon, manager – director of the regional office, Institute of the Republic of Slovenia for Employment, Maribor Regional Office
- Tanja Povšič, Head of the Blue Station at the Association of Friends of the Youth of Slovenia (ZPMS).

Moderator: Nataša Novak, SLOGA

They will talk about the following sustainable development goals:

Free entry!

